LOW RAILROAD FARE TO FAIR

Agent Rice Secures Rate of One Fare and a Third-Jim Wright To Manage Fair Dinner

Excursion rates to the great K. of P. fair in Stanford next week on August 23, 24 and 25 have been granted by the L. & N. railroad and delegations from all points of the compass are expected here to see the big show. Local Agent J. S. Rice took up the matter with his road and secured a rate of one fare and a third from points between Stanford and Lebanon, Stanford and Richmond and Stanford and Corbin. The special fare applies to all round trip tickets and will be good on all trains G. N Ray, of the Judson district thing like a big picnic, where all coming into tanford on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Arrangements were made late last week by which J. H. Wright, of this city, will have charge of the dinner which the fair will spread each day, afternoon. He had convulsions and of the Signal, was untiring in looking and this insures that a splendid meal will be served each day. Old ham, him.
